

Through his Word, the Bible, he reveals a new way of living in harmony with God and others. And he himself stands at the right hand of God in Heaven representing those who have put their trust in him. “Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Hebrews 4:16).

Jesus said that whoever comes to him will never be cast out— whoever believes in Jesus has eternal life (John 6:37, 47). Come to Jesus Christ today. Receive him as your Savior and Friend. Then you too can know that truth, power, sympathy, and help are found in one glorious Person—the Lord Jesus Christ!

To find out more about
Jesus Christ please visit:
tell-me-more.org

Or email:
more@10ofthose.com

---

10 Publishing
a division of 10 of those.com
www.10ofthose.com

DayOne
www.dayone.co.uk

Someone cares

Someone cares for you.

He knows your present circumstances. He knows your very thoughts. And he is calling to you now: “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). He is Jesus Christ, and rest—real rest—from the burdens of life, is what he offers you. Rest from fear and guilt, from worry and frustration, from loneliness and disappointment.

If you are struggling under life's pressures, he offers to bear your burdens with you: “Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light” (Matthew 11:29-30).

If you are searching for peace of mind and soul, Jesus offers you his peace: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid” (John 14:27).

Yes, Jesus cares for you. He became a man to redeem you from the consequences of sin. In his 33 years on earth, he suffered rejection, abuse, and cruelty. He endured hunger, thirst, and pain. And he died on the cross of Calvary to fulfill God's plan of salvation: “he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5).

When he arose from the grave he triumphed over sin and death, promising all who will receive him: “Because I live, you also will live” (John 14:19).

You can be sure that this very moment Jesus cares for you and wants to meet your needs. For the risen Savior is both God and man: being man he understands your every need; being God he is able to deliver you from despair and hopelessness.

Because Jesus is the risen Son of God, he has power to forgive your sins and give you new, eternal life: “if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved” (Romans 10:9).

Because Jesus lived on earth as a man, he understands your feelings and needs. Through his Spirit he offers you inner peace and strength. Through his people he offers encouragement and companionship.