This book is a bit different from others.

In most books there is work for your eyes and ears.

You look at the pictures, and listen to the words.

But in this book, there is work for your face too!

You will see the faces of lots of people who were there at the first Easter when Jesus died and rose again.

Every time you see one, try to copy the face they are making,
and think about how they would have felt...

Let's try it!

Are you ready?

Then turn the page to begin...

Jesus came to the city of Jerusalem.

A huge EXCITED crowd welcomed Jesus.
They knew that he was God's promised King.

A blue-toned illustration of Jesus kneeling in prayer under a full moon, with a soldier's spear pointing towards him. Jesus has brown hair and a beard, and is wearing a light blue robe. He is kneeling on a grassy field with trees in the background. A large, bright full moon is visible in the sky. A soldier's hand holding a spear is visible on the left side of the frame.

But some people
did not want Jesus
to be in charge.

So they sent soldiers to arrest him.
They HATED Jesus, because he said he was the Son of God.

They put King Jesus on a cross to die.
Jesus' friends were very SCARED.

Jesus died.
His friends CRIED.
