

ARE WE NEARLY
THERE
YET?

WRITTEN BY ALISON BREWIS

ILLUSTRATED BY JENNY BRAKE

An illustration of two children sitting in the back of a car. The girl on the left has long brown hair in pigtails and is wearing a teal dress. The boy on the right has curly brown hair and is wearing a black shirt, holding a brown teddy bear. They are both smiling and looking towards each other. The car's interior is grey, and the window shows a blue sky. A watermark '© 100ftthomson.com' is visible across the image.

Two excited children are wriggling in the car.

They're driving down to Granny's, it's really really far!

They're waiting to see Granny and eat
an Easter lunch,

but most of all
they're waiting for
some chocolate
eggs to munch!

“Are we nearly
there YET? When will we arrive?”

“We’re TIRED and
we’re BORED from
the long, long drive!”

“Just a little L O N G E R,
and it will all be great.
I'll tell the Easter story,
so L I S T E N while you wait...”

A dramatic scene of a stormy sea at night. A large, curling wave with white foam dominates the left side of the frame. The water is a deep, dark teal color. In the lower right, a small wooden boat with a white sail and several figures inside is visible. The sky is dark, and a bright light source, possibly the moon or a distant light, creates a shimmering path on the water's surface. The overall mood is one of intense natural power and a small vessel in the face of it.

Jesus' disciples had followed him about.

They saw him calm
a mighty storm with
just a single shout.

He fed 5000 people with
just some fish and bread.

“INCREDIBLE!
AMAZING!”

That's what the people said.

"Are we NEARLY
there yet? When will you be King?"

"Show them you're
the BOSS, in charge
of everything!"

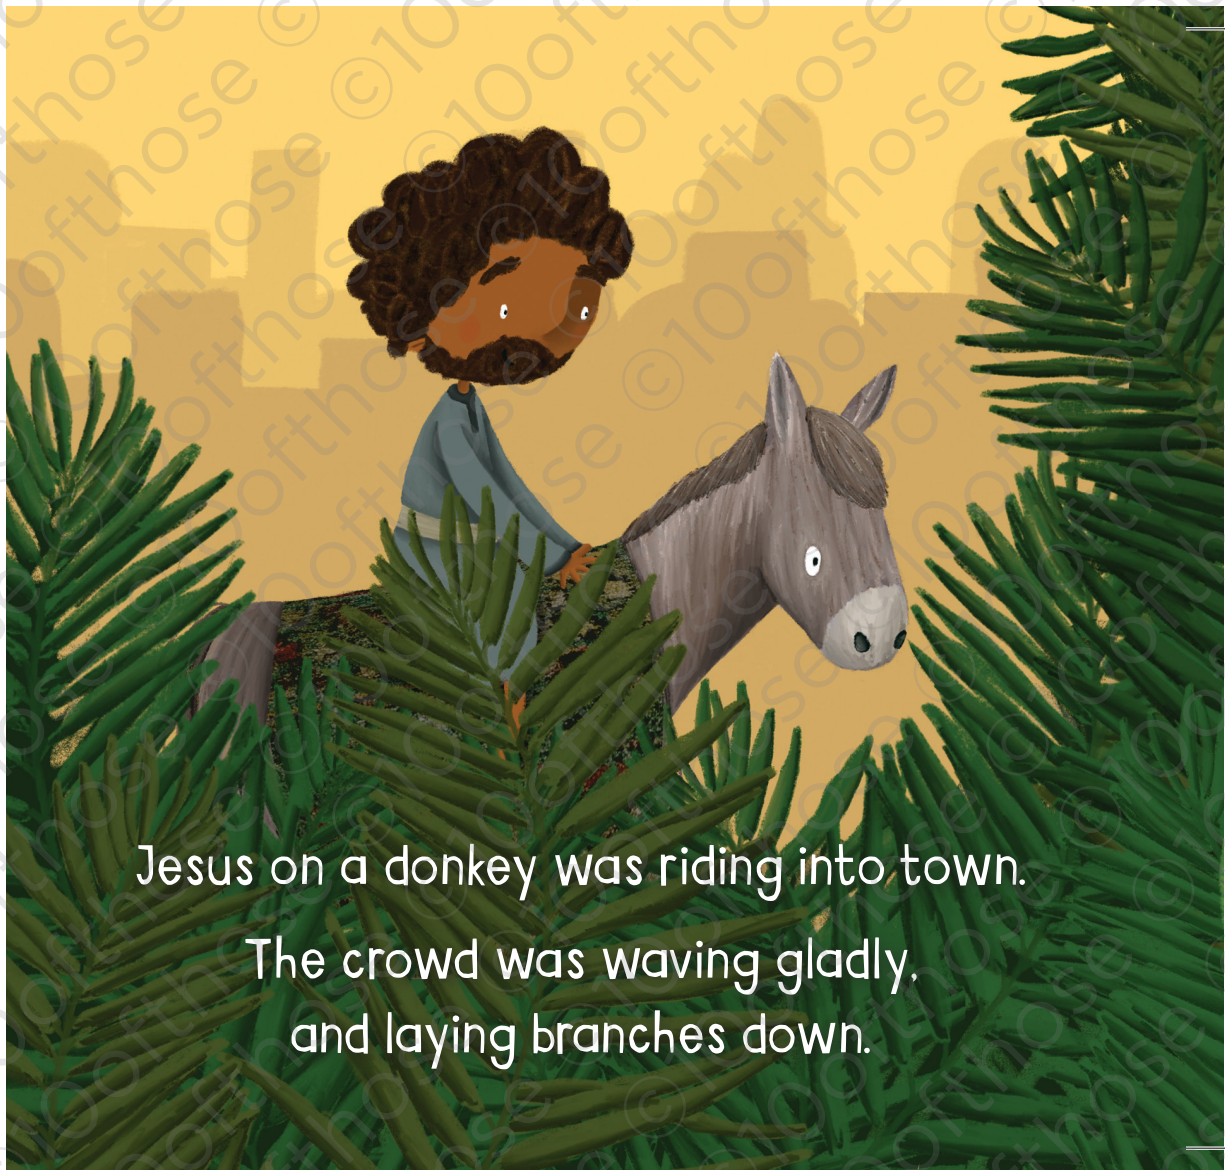

“Just a little longer,
the time has NEARLY come.

Soon the world will see,
I'm KING of everyone.”

Jesus on a donkey was riding into town.

The crowd was waving gladly,
and laying branches down.

They
shouted,

"JESUS
SAVE US!"

And,

"JESUS IS THE KING!"

And Jesus'
disciples all
turned and
said to him...